

K HISTORY SCHOOLHOUSE

REGISTRATION

This in-person program, conducted in English, is designed for those interested in critically engaged scholarship on modern Korean history — especially relevant as right-wing movements rapidly gain strength — and in experiencing solidarity-building efforts with South Korea's resilient democracy movement.

CONVENERS Junha Cho, Hee-shin Choi, Henry Em, Dong-Choon Kim, Suzy Kim, A-Young Moon, Jae-Jung Suh

SPRING 2025 PROGRAM

| | |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| March 15, 10:00 am-3:00 pm PEACEMOMO | March 22, 10:00 am-3:00 pm Good Society Institute |
| Workshop Connections, Formation, and Commons (A-Young Moon, activist) Lecture Unseen Feminist Solidarities: Korean War to the Present (Prof. Suzy Kim) | Workshop Self, Event, and a Truth Process (Prof. Henry Em) Lecture The Global Surge of Right-Wing Movements and Anti-Martial Law Protests in South Korea (Prof. Dong-Choon Kim) |
| March 29, 10:00 am-3:00 pm Good Society Institute | April 5, 9:00 am-5:00 pm Dongducheon |
| Lecture Trump, Preemptive Doctrines, and the Unending Korean War (Prof. Jae-Jung Suh) Workshop Who am I, in Solidarity? (Junha Cho, activist) | Field Trip Dongducheon US Military Camp Town (Hee-shin Choi, activist) *Pick-up at City Hall station / Drop-off at Jang-Am station |

FEES

- 25,000 KRW each for the first three sessions
- 45,000 KRW for the field trip to Dongducheon

* For all sessions, the cost of lunch is included.

LEARN MORE

- Inquiries: khistoryschoolhouse@gmail.com
- Instagram: @khisoryschoolhouse

